Chester, PA -- If you enjoy driving rhythm and joyful sounds, the City of Chester's Department of Parks & Recreation invites you to come out for its annual Summer Concert Series. Every Sunday evening in the month of August the City's concert series hosts a variety of live musical performances, along with DJ entertainment and food vendors, scheduled from 6:00 pm until dusk in Ethel Waters Park located on the banks of Chester Creek at Edgmont Avenue & Route 291, across from Chester City Hall.

The free concert series will kick off this Sunday, August 2, 2009 at 6:00 pm with the smooth and versatile sounds of Final Kutt. Subsequent performers include Four Deep Band – August 9; Point Blank Band – August 16; and Urban Guerilla Orchestra – August 23.

These musical events are free and open to the public and are a part of Mayor and City Council's ongoing efforts to provide quality recreational programming to residents and visitors in the City of Chester.
