CITY HOLDS JOB READINESS EVENT FOR RESIDENTS

Chester, PA – On Saturday, March 28, 2009 the City of Chester is holding a Job Readiness Event to help prepare Chester residents for the City’s upcoming Career Fair on April 15, 2009. This series of four seminars will cover resume building, how to get the most out of a career fair, preparing for an interview, and dressing for success. Job seekers and those looking to make a career change, along with those planning to attend the upcoming Career Fair, are strongly encouraged to attend the Job Readiness Event.

“In today’s job market, one must be ready in every way possible, through every means possible,” said Robert Wrease, Jr., Workforce Coordinator. “It’s not enough to simply show up to a career fair or an interview and expect a job. Instead one has to look, act and be the part, which for many requires extra preparation and training.”

Through this series of seminars and question and answer sessions, attendees will have the opportunity to learn how to prepare and ready themselves for today’s job market. The event will feature guest speakers from PA Working Wardrobe, Careerlink and Harrah’s Chester Casino & Racetrack. Registration will begin at 9:00 am with the first seminar to follow. A continental breakfast, provided by the City, will be served for participants, who are encouraged to stay for the entire duration of the event.

For more information, residents can contact Workforce Coordinator Robert Wrease at the Workforce Development Center at 610-447-1424.
